

Galerie

The Artful Life: 5 Things Galerie Editors Love This Week

From Il Buco Vita's first Los Angeles store to an experiential tequila-tasting space in San Miguel de Allende designed by Meyer Davis

By: Galerie Editors
Impressions: 68,826

*The warm palette option features interiors curated by B&B Italia. PHOTO: WALDORF ASTORIA
FURNISHED RESIDENCES BY B&B ITALIA*

1. Waldorf Astoria Residences New York Partners with B&B Italia

An American icon is getting a dose of European glamour thanks to an exciting partnership between the Waldorf Astoria and B&B Italia. The legendary New York hotel—currently in the midst of a massive renovation and residential conversion—will now give buyers the opportunity to purchase turnkey apartments expertly curated by the luxury furniture group. The two options available, Chiaro and Scuro, provide the

November 27, 2023

Galerie Magazine

units (which start at $1.8 million and range from studios to four-bedrooms) with either a cool or warm color palette that encompass everything from furnishings and wall coverings to linens and tableware. In advance of the grand reopening at the end of 2024, interested parties can visit the can visit the residential gallery onsite at the Waldorf Astoria at 305 Park Avenue in Manhattan to get a taste of what's in store. — Geoffrey Montes

Article Link: The Artful Life: 5 Things Galerie Editors Love This Week